

DELTA THETA TAU SORORITY, INC.

STANDING RULES OF BETA PROVINCE

In addition to the rules as outlined for provinces in the National Bylaws, Article XIII, Beta Province adopts the following Standing Rules:

ARTICLE I - OBJECT

The object of the Province is to maintain a closer and more intimate relationship between the chapters that comprise it, to discuss individual Chapter's problems, to submit suggestions for the betterment of the Sorority and to carry out a philanthropic project.

ARTICLE II - MEETINGS

Section 1. The Province Convention City shall be chosen two (2) years in advance at the Province Convention by a majority of the votes cast by those eligible to vote. If only one (1) chapter is bidding, the Convention Secretary may be instructed to cast the ballot. In the event a majority vote is not cast, a second ballot shall be taken on the two (2) cities having the highest number of votes.

(a) In the event there are no bids presented for the next Province, location shall be selected in the following manner:

1. Within sixty (60) days the Chapters may mail bids to the Province Chairman.
2. If only one (1) bid is received during this period, that bid shall be accepted and the Province Chairman shall notify all Chapters and other voting members of the location of the next convention.
3. If more than one (1) bid is received, the Province Chairman shall prepare a ballot of the bids presented and mail it to each Chapter and other voting members to be voted upon and the ballot returned within thirty (30) days.
4. The Province Chairman shall advise all Chapters and other voting members at the expiration of thirty (30) days the result of the ballot.
5. In the event no bids are received at the expiration of sixty (60) days, the Province Chairman shall place the matter in the hands of National Council and Board of Trustees.

Section 2. Voting members shall consist of one (1) delegate from each chapter, Beta Province Chairman, Past Beta Province Chairmen, Past National Presidents and Honorary Members who are members of Delta Theta Tau of Beta Province. Past Beta Province Chairmen who are also Past National Presidents or Honorary Members who are a member of Delta Theta Tau of Beta Province shall have one

(1) ballot. If also serving as their chapter delegate, she shall have the privilege of casting one (1) ballot for herself in addition to that of her chapter.

- Section 3. Accredited delegates from one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the number of Chapters in good standing shall constitute a quorum.
